Application for Interim Report and Review OR Reaccreditation with Site Visit of Human Service Program

An Interim Report and Review is completed 5 years after initial accreditation and every 10 years thereafter. No site visit is required for the Interim Report and Review. Reaccreditation is completed through a self-study and site visit every 10 years after the initial accreditation, and every 10 years thereafter. For example, if a program is accredited the first time in 2000, there will be an interim report and review in 2005 (no site visit), reaccreditation with a site visit in 2010, an interim report and review in 2015 (no site visit), and reaccreditation in 2020 with a site visit.

Programs must maintain current membership with the Council as a condition of accreditation. Interim Reports and Reaccreditation self-studies are required to meet the current Standards, policies, and procedures determined by the Council Board. After the application is submitted, the Vice President of Accreditation will assign a Board Member-at-Large who will serve as a consultant during the self-study process. The assigned Board Member-at-Large acts as a consultant during the self-study process and will not serve as a Self-Study Reader or Site Visitor for the program. The most current Members Handbook: Accreditation and Self-Study Guide is available in PDF format on the Council website at <http://www.cshse.org>.

Programs are encouraged to contact the Vice President of Accreditation with questions about the application form or accreditation process prior to submission of the Accreditation Application Form. See <http://www.cshse.org> for current contact information.

There are specific considerations when applying for accreditation:

- If there is more than one site, list the address and contact information for each site. A site is defined as a location at which the entire program is offered to and can be completed by the student.
- If the same curriculum is used at multiple sites, they can be included in one self-study, but there is an additional $50 charge for each additional site.
- If the site does not use the same curriculum, each site must apply separately for accreditation.
- If the program is seeking accreditation for multiple degree levels, an application and accompanying fee must be submitted for each degree level.

Mail the completed accreditation application form with the $500.00 accreditation fee (effective July 1, 2017) made payable to the Council for Standards in Human Service Education or CSHSE, Federal ID # 36-3706899, to the address above.
